

Published on Arkansas Judiciary (<https://courts.arkansas.gov>)

Rule 14. Involuntary Retirement.

A judge who is advised to retire voluntarily and who refuses may be retired involuntarily by the Supreme Court following the filing of a formal complaint, a public hearing thereon before the Commission, and a report containing a finding that he is physically or mentally disabled, and recommendation to the court that such action be taken.

Associated Court Rules:

Rules of Procedure of the Arkansas Judicial Discipline and Disability Commission

Source URL: <https://courts.arkansas.gov/rules-and-administrative-orders/court-rules/rule-14-involuntary-retirement>